

Parsons Awarded $88M to Provide Systems Engineering and Integration Solutions for U.S. Air Forces in Europe and Africa Air Base Air Defense

December 10, 2025

CHANTILLY, Va., Dec. 10, 2025 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Parsons Corporation (NYSE: PSN) has been awarded an $88 million single-award Task Order contract over three years to support the U.S. Air Forces in Europe - Air Forces Africa (USAFE-AFAFRICA) Air Base Air Defense (ABAD) mission at Ramstein Air Base, Germany. This award brings the company's total value under the ABAD contract to $192 million in 2025.

"Our success on the ABAD mission draws from our team's experience and proven track record, with this task order reinforcing our commitment to delivering cutting-edge technology solutions and expert support," said Mike Kushin, president, Defense and Intelligence for Parsons. "We are a trusted leader in enhancing air base security and effectiveness, and we are dedicated to continuing that legacy to secure America's assets and defend our soldiers overseas."

The company will deliver a comprehensive scope of work encompassing advanced equipment procurement and configuration, seamless systems integration, specialized operator training, robust technical support, and ongoing maintenance, ensuring mission readiness, operational excellence, and long-term system reliability.

In 2021, Parsons received a 10-year Indefinite Delivery Indefinite Quantity single award contract valued at $953 million, reinforcing its role as a leader in national security operations. This new work exemplifies Parsons' ongoing commitment to safeguarding military operations and ensuring the effectiveness of air defense systems across Europe and Africa.
